

D.A.R.E. to Stand Out

THE
RFP
SUCCESS[™]
COMPANY

If you are bidding on state government RFPs, it's crucial for you to know how to position yourself for the win. It goes beyond being qualified and answering the questions.

Our D.A.R.E. methodology will guide you to make subtle changes that will ensure your bid stands out and will significantly increase your scores!

Distinction

Showing Distinction means you are:

- 1 Differentiating your solution
- 2 Showcasing a solid value proposition
- 3 Standing out amongst other bidders

Answering the Questions

Pay attention to the questions to ensure:

- 1 You answer all parts of the question
- 2 You answer the question as it was asked
- 3 Your answer is solution-focused

Requirements

Double and triple check the requirements of the RFP by:

- 1 Developing a compliance matrix
- 2 Having a review by more than one attention-to-detail person

Evidence & Authority

Having external validation builds trust.

- 1 Provide evidence through: Case studies / success stories; testimonials and references; industry credibility; industry comparisons; quantifiable statistics such as: revenue growth for your client, cost savings, ROI, operational efficiency, improved employee productivity, improved customer satisfaction scores, reduced turnover, improved retention.
- 2 Show authority by showcasing: Awards, books, white papers, industry recognition, best practice guides, strategic industry partnerships, hosting industry conferences, publishing special reports, high profile clients, expert panels, educational contributions, magazine or publication articles, media features, podcasts / speaking, thought leadership content.
